Thriving Places

Govanhill Housing Association is lead for Thriving Places. There is a locality plan to help communities make decisions through empowerment community planning partnerships. There is currently 10 neighbourhoods needing further special attention and Govanhill was added in September 2017. GDCT has been tasked with consultation which lasted until March 2019. They were given the template of the locality plan throughout community conversations they found out what was the biggest issues for the area. Due to lack of capacity the consultation stopped in March 2019 and an external recruitment process took place in September 2019 which gave Rizwana the job. She is looking to restart the consultation through different organisations including CGCC.
